

In Memory of AnnaLeah 1995 to 2013 and Mary Lydia Karth 1999 to 2013

June 13, 2013 ·

Some of you might have seen this photo posted by Naomi. She took it at Highland View Cemetery on Saturday as we said goodbye to AnnaLeah and Mary.

A few times in the past, our family has released a balloon on Ascension Day and watched until we could no longer see it--to help us grasp what it was like for the disciples to see Jesus be lifted up out of their sight. I wanted us to be able to do the same for AnnaLeah (17 purple balloons) and Mary (13 orange balloons) and remember that, although we can no longer see them, someday we will...

"And after He had said these things, He was lifted up while they were looking on, and a cloud received Him out of their sight.

And as they were gazing intently into the sky while He was departing, behold, two men in white clothing stood beside them;

and they also said, 'Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who has been taken up from you into heaven, will come in just the same way as you have watched Him go into heaven.'" Acts 1:9-11
