A Mother's Memories

While I was still in the hospital in the days following our accident, our daughter-in-law, Naomi, brought me a little photo album in which I put the photos of our family which I had had in my purse. I shared these with everyone who was taking care of me. Naomi also brought me a little blank book in which I found myself recording precious memories of AnnaLeah and Mary. Here they are...

A Mother's Memories

What shall I write in memory of two sisters, AnnaLeah (born May 15, 1995) and Mary Lydia (born August 6, 1999)--born to Jerry and Marianne Karth--who had their lives cut short by an accident which was out-of-the-blue, unforeseen (by us), and very unwelcome?

Countless words and circumstances bring these daughters to my mind. Their humor, joy-of-living, and insight filled our days.

They were both good with young children--each in their own way. AnnaLeah especially took care of many
