

In Memory of AnnaLeah 1995 to 2013 and Mary Lydia Karth 1999 to 2013's albums

In Memory of Our Book Lovers

AnnaLeah and Mary loved to read and collect books. In 2012, while I was writing a book about a family in Midland, Texas, AnnaLeah was very helpful to me in her recommendations about self-publishing options. Also, both she and Mary were helpful in doing extra chores when I was absorbed with work on the book and listening to me tell funny or interesting stories as the project went along. Then, just before our trip to Texas, I led a workshop at the Braswell Memorial Library on Personal History. After our accident, Traci, the local history and genealogy librarian, decided to order some new personal and family history books for the library. We received a letter telling us that these books had been put into the Braswell Memorial Library's collection in memory of AnnaLeah and Mary. We are thankful for their thoughtfulness and the special way they found to commemorate our girls who so loved to read. Here is one of the books: See Less
