Come to Jesus

Do Not Open Until February 2020 Well, this has been a day of random, unexpected triggers...first, I went to the doctor and while waiting in the exam room heard "Come to Jesus" being played in the clinic's sound system. Susanna had choreographed that song years ago in Michigan and AnnaLeah and Mary had danced it with Susanna and I and a few others in our Dance for Jesus team. Soon after, the doctor asked if she could pray with/for me. (Not going to say no to that!) Then, Levi was packing up the things from AnnaLeah's desk and dresser (we are moving to a new house this coming week) and first found a little booklet that Mary had made titled, "How to Get Through College Without Paying a Cent." Inside it said, "Walk into the building (and then out the door)." copyright 2010 Mary Karth After that, I got a facebook message from the dad of one of Mary's younger friends in Texas who had just heard about it (I had mailed her parents a letter) and he said that she was so sad. He said that many memories and emotions went through her as they discussed it with her. Next, Levi found an envelope of AnnaLeah's which said, "Do not open until February 10, 2020." Finally, he found another envelope which said, "Open on February 17, 2020." How can we ever wait that long?!
